Units IV and XIIA were platted without accompanying covenants and restrictions. Original restrictions for Units XXIII and XXIV were amended by vote of owners and replaced with restrictions which expired. As explained in Attachment "B," these units are subject to covenants filed at Vol. 1466, Page 605. The following individuals have signed voluntary covenants comparable to those of the majority of the other units if a document registration number is listed opposite their name. Owners who have not yet executed voluntary covenants are listed also.

	3	See Note (1)	Bill and Carol Harris

Note (1): Lots 2 and 3, Unit XXXI, were acquired from the Upper Neches River Municipal Water Authority based on an agreement between the Authority and Emerald Bay Homeowners Association whereby the lots would be conveyed "subject to the terms and conditions of the Emerald Bay Homeowners Association as set forth in its Restrictions and Covenants recorded in Volume 1422, Page 727 of the Official Public Records of Real Property in the County Clerk's office of Smith County, Texas." Those covenants were filed in conjunction with the plats and dedication of Emerald Bay, Units VII, IX and XI. Those covenants require each lot owner to apply for and be accepted as members of Emerald Bay Club, Inc. and to be subject to covenants and restrictions cited therein. The deeds of conveyance cited that the properties were subject to "restrictions of record," which, in this case would be those of record in Volume 1422, Page 727. Therefore, the Emerald Bay Homeowners Association deems these lots to be subject to the same restrictions as Unit XI, Emerald Bay, which Unit the referenced lots adjoin.

ATTACHMENT "D"

The Emerald Bay Homeowners Association was not created by a deed or plat and dedication. All deed restrictions listed in this document require the owner to be a member in good standing of the Emerald Bay Club, Inc., and to abide by its bylaws, rules and regulations.

The Emerald Bay Homeowners Association was "spun off" by Emerald Bay Club, Inc. by Articles of Incorporation dated March 26, 1987. The stated purposes of the Articles, as set forth in paragraph "4. Purposes," were as follows:

- (1) To acquire from Emerald Bay Club, Inc. all of said Club's rights, title and interest in and to the following property situated in or at the Emerald Bay Subdivision, located on Lake Palestine in Smith County, Texas: (A) streets and roadways, (B) the security guard station at the front entrance of the Subdivision, the security gate on Hicks Drive, (C) the assets acquired or to be acquired by Emerald Bay Club, Inc. from Emerald Bay Water Company, Inc., and (E) such other property conveyed to the corporation by Emerald Bay Club, Inc.; and to own, construct, improve, repair, maintain, manage, operate and care for such properties for the use, benefit, enjoyment and convenience of the property owners in said Subdivision, their lessees and guests and as provided for in the Restrictions and Covenants applicable to said Subdivision.
- (2) To provide or contract for security protection for said Subdivision;
- (3) To provide architectural control pursuant to the Restrictions and Covenants applicable to the said Subdivision.
- (4) To keep the vacant lots in the said Subdivision mowed and clean of debris pursuant to the Restrictions and Covenants applicable to the said Subdivision.

All persons who own lot(s) in Emerald Bay Subdivision are shareholders in the E. B. Homeowners Association, whether or not they are covered by restrictive covenants.

Emerald Bay Club, Inc. acquired from Cherokee Land Co. all the assets enumerated in the Articles cited above, plus the golf course and use permit from the Upper Neches River Municipal Water Authority. The conveyance was by General Warranty Deed filed at Volume 1619, Page 522, Deed Records of Smith County, Texas. Emerald Bay Club, Inc. succeeded to the right of Cherokee Land Co. to appoint an Architectural Control Committee, which it transferred to Emerald Bay Homeowners Association via the Articles of Incorporation.
